Please contact any one of the committee members regarding the AGM and Annual Dinner related matters.

Invitation to members to take active part in the committee

AGM is the opportunity to become part of the executive committee and take your community service to the next level.

We would like to see new members of all ages to come forward to join the committee to take the HCPPA (NSW) into the future. Current committee members shoulder the day-to-day responsibility and do the succession planning by identifying and introducing new members to the committee. We would like to see proactive participation from everyone.

Please nominate your friends with talents to take part in the committee for the year 2007/08. Remember that serving the Alma Mater is a very satisfying personal experience and it helps personal development.

Please contact any one of the committee members regarding the AGM and Annual Dinner related matters.
